New Zealand Superbike Championship

This season aboard my Kiwi Rider Magazine Suzuki SV650 backed by Suzuki New Zealand I am competing in the 2020 NZSBK Championship in the Pro Twin Class.

Can't thank these people enough for this awesome opportunity to progress my road racing career.

I recently travelled down to the South Island for Round 1 & 2 of the series held at Mike Pero Motorsport Park in Christchurch and Levels International Motor Raceway in Timaru.

Round One held in Christchurch was a really solid weekend, riding to where I was comfortable as the goal was to finish the round off with a good amount of points to my name. As this was my first National Pro Twin event we used this as a big learning weekend, many things to get my head around.

Practice complete feeling reasonably happy with the setup, we headed into race day not really sure what to expect.

Qualifying I had a goal set to be on the front row and we achieved that with a solid lap to put me 4th on the grid.

Race One started with a bit of drama with one rider going down and another having bike issues in front of me on the first lap. That slotted me into second where I hunted down the leader but decided at half race distance I didn't quite have the confidence in the bike to stick with him. I settled for a solid 2nd place to start off my NZSBK Pro Twin campaign which I could not be happier with!

Race Two got off to a cracker start pulling the holeshot and leading my first laps of the Pro Twins. I got shuffled back to third on the heels of the leaders but again didn't quite have the pace to stick with them. Another podium finishing 3rd!

New Zealand Grand Prix / Race Three another holeshot and held the lead for about 3 laps then got I pushed back to second. Working my ass off I put my head down and kept within a second up until the last couple laps where I had a big enough buffer behind me to roll off and just bring her home for another podium in 2nd!

For the weekend I didn't expect much coming in and to finish every race on the podium is absolutely mega for me! Overall I wrapped up Round 1 with a 3rd, 5 Points covering the top 3 of us and 2nd in the New Zealand Grand Prix!

Round 2 held in Timaru was a mixed bag of emotions. Heading in feeling really positive with a great team behind me this weekend. Starting with a test day on Wednesday to get my head around the track and then started to feel out the bike for where we need to work on setup come Friday test day.

Friday test day was really positive finding a really comfortable setup throughout the day getting to grips with the bike more and more. Going into race day feeling prepared and ready to rumble.

Qualifying I put in one heater lap straight off the bat which put me 2nd on the grid!

Race one I pulled the holeshot and led a few laps then slotted in behind the leader and waited for my opponent to pounce. On the last lap I made the move and came across the line to take my first NZSBK Championship Pro Twins Win!

Race two I played the same tactic letting him set the pace working out where and when I had to make my move. With two laps to go I took the lead and held off to take another Win!

Race three did not go to plan at all. I tried to pull a lead from the get go as I felt I had the speed to make a run for it. After making a few mistakes I got out of rhythm and started to push to make up a bit of a buffer again. With tyres going off my inexperience got the best me and ended up throwing it down the road at the hairpin for a DNF in the final race.

Overall was a really positive weekend knowing I have the pace to stick it out with the top boys and win races. I have now learnt from my mistake and we can only build from here. For the weekend I still finished 3rd Overall and holding down 3rd in the Championship. Not the end of the world. Time to put in the work and come back faster and stronger! Bring on Hampton Downs!

Big thanks to Jared Love and the old man for coming down and being my spanner men for the weekends!

Thanks to Team Rees and Blake Ross Racing for making it such a fun weekend! Wicked bunch of people!

Massive thank you to Uncle Dennis for lending us his ute for the South Island trip

Thanks to all my sponsors who make it all possible:

Kiwi Rider, Suzuki New Zealand, NTB Racing, Pirelli, Crown Kiwi Enterprises, Bell Helmets, Alpinestar, Race Supplies, BRM Dyno Paeroa, F1 Engineering, Kea Trailers, Eurobike New Zealand, BikesportNZ, Garth May Farm Bike Servicing, Mahoe Land Company.

and thank you Zac for this comprehensive report - Ed

WE WANT YOU

JOB VACANCIES

The club has a few positions to fill as our current Secretary and Newsletter Editor is relocating to Australia in May . . .

, , , ,and with Steve Parker pulling back from Treasury, some of the roles he has traditionally done can be spread around better!

Club Secretary

Believe it or not, despite having the word “Secretary” in the title, this is not a role restricted to the female of the species . . . this is an important role, keeping the communication channels open between the members, the committee, and the organisations we deal with. Time wise shouldn’t be too onerous, an hour or so here and there, and best that you are available for all committee meetings – there is only one a month.

Membership Secretary

Holder of the membership Book, and recorder of members. You will be someone who attends most club nights, and is computer savvy enough to keep an eye on incoming emails and payments, to enable cards to be posted asap, as often they are time critical for members wishing to compete.

Newsletter Editor

You’ll need to attend committee meetings, and assemble and format the magazine over the weekend following. You know what the newsletter looks like – we format it using Adobe InDesign, which I can train you in, if you are up for it. Needs a few hours commitment in the week between committee meeting and club night. Usually you will collect mag from printers, and post the ones requiring posting, although this part can be assigned to another person if it doesn’t fit your schedule.

Treasurer

Ensures all income is accounted for, and banked, and all bills are paid on time. Maintain accurate records in Xero accounting system, provide monthly updates to committee, and prepare End of Year Balance sheet in February. Must be able to attend committee meetings.

Property Manager

Someone to keep an eye on building maintenance issues, and make sure that maintenance is done in a timely manner. This can be by personal skill, organizing working bees of club members, or organising professional services as appropriate. You will need to specify and obtain quotes for professional services, and obtain council permits if required.

Jorge Lorenzo, Max Biaggi and Hugh Anderson to become MotoGP™ Legends

Spaniard, Italian and New Zealander set for induction into the Hall of Fame in 2020

An initial presentation was made to Hugh at the Classic Festival on Saturday 1st February.

He will receive a full presentation at the Australian Moto GP at Phillip Island in October.

Hugh Anderson will be the final inductee in 2020, alongside Jorge Lorenzo and Max Biaggi. Anderson made his first GP appearances in the 500cc and 350cc classes in 1960, taking a podium in the latter. Two years later he added the 125cc and 50cc classes to his resume, becoming a race winner in both. That set his course and for 1963 the New Zealander took on the 125cc and 50cc World Championships in earnest, taking the crown in each class. He retained the 50cc crown the following year to make it back-to-back titles and was third in the 125cc title fight, reversing that in 1965 as he regained the 125cc crown and was third in the 50cc class. Anderson retired in 1966 after taking an impressive 25 Grand Prix wins and four titles in just six years.

Hugh Anderson: "How I felt when receiving the news? At first, apprehension: do my relatively modest achievements warrant this honour? Will I, can I, do justice to this invitation? Some hours later I felt a feelgood sensation envelope me. A gratification that after all this time the modern world has not forgotten the past and the riders of a very much different era still have some value. A question of the history of our sport being recognised at the highest level. Thank you."

Lorenzo, Biaggi and Anderson now join a long list of greats that have been made MotoGP™ Legends that includes Giacomo Agostini, Mick Doohan, Geoff Duke, Wayne Gardner, Mike Hailwood, Daijiro Kato, Eddie Lawson, Anton Mang, Angel Nieto, Wayne Rainey, Phil Read, Jim Redman, Kenny Roberts, Jarno Saarinen, Kevin Schwantz, Barry Sheene, Marco Simoncelli, Freddie Spencer, Casey Stoner, John Surtees, Carlo Ubbiali, Alex Crivillé, Franco Uncini, Marco Lucchinelli, Randy Mamola, Kork Ballington, Dani Pedrosa, Stefan Dörflinger, Jorge Martinez and the late, great Nicky Hayden.

CENTENARY UPDATE JAN

Things are rolling along nicely, with only a mild feeling of panic we are missing something!

VENUE

Venue and hire items are well sorted, but we are still waiting on confirmation of the Tiger Moth fly-in. Optimistic enough that it will happen that it is being included in the publicity and timetable.

Rough plan for the evening is;

5:00pm Tiger Moth to land

5:30pm Nibbles to be served

6:00pm Official welcome

6:45pm Dinner to be served

8:00pm Book launch

8:30pm Mix and mingle

Mini-vans have been booked for moving people in and out of venue.

TICKETS

It seems the website is defeating a few people, as well as acknowledging many are not web-savvy, so we have produced the paper version, as printed in the middle of this newsletter. Copies are freely available from the club.

I would urge anyone planning on going to the dinner to book asap, number will be limited, and people are coming out of the woodwork.

FINDING FORMER MEMBERS

Please talk to acquaintances and spread the word around, particularly to help find those no longer active in motorcycling, who may not be aware it is coming up.

OTHER WEEKEND EVENTS

Road ride on 11 April. Ride down Victoria street up to the Kaimais and back to the classic museum. Aim to leave about 8:30 – 9am.

Also we have a pre-centenary publicity ride on Sunday 29th March, meeting in Hood Street by the Rocket Cafe, followed by a short ride, and back to Club Rooms.

BIKE SHOW & SWAP MEET

Entry is ½ price on the day of the swap meet (12 April).

"Our" painting on display at the Museum

The Museum has a display currently on Hamilton's heritage, and one of the items displayed is this Michael Smither painting, one of the most valuable (well into 6 figures now) purchased with funds raised by our club from the Founders Theatre Road Races in the 1970's.

I don't know if you will be able to read the display details below, but they do give credit to our club for purchasing this painting for their collection.

It will also feature in an exhibition they are putting on in October to mark our Centenary
