Prezzo Report

Hi all again, well it would seem the race gods still throw us the odd curve ball again just to make sure we have our hands on the handlebars. This one is the reset on Round 1 of the centenary series being pushed out to the 26th/27th Sept with 26th being the track day and 27th race day. This was due to Bruce McLaren Motosport shuffling their order to accommodate everyone in these changing times. Some classes will be racing on the long track while other classes will stay to the short track. We will be trying something different will marshals for the longer track races so make sure you are there to find out. We are also trying to make sure we get the latest info out to you when we get it ourselves so keep an eye on the web page and Facebook for any changes and updates.

The MOTOGP nights have been on for the last 3 rounds with extremely low attendance and we will see if they continue in the future. Also keep an eye on facebook for the club rides and in the following pages.

The trials guys have an event on Pukeatua Rd on the 6th Sept and are looking at hosting the 2021 Nationals next year. May seem a long way off but that time will go by quick enough.

There is also an update on centenary stuff which will either be later on in the mag or in the nearest of near futures.

Horst's wife has also been back in touch with me thanking us for the email on behalf of the club and our show of support, the card is still here should you wish to write something. Funny the other day I was watching the 2019 Macau street race and as the camera was going down the grid and riders were waving and smiling it came along to Horst in 4th place on the grid and as the camera moves up to him it has the front of the bike in full frame and there on the point of the nose cone was a big ole HMCC logo right in full view and visible for sometime, was really cool to see that so thanks Horst and again we wish you a speedy recovery.

Come down on Thursday and see some display bikes and catch up with the latest gossip.

See you there

Cheers Frilly

HMCC CLUB ROAD RACE SERIES

As you have probably already heard, the first Round at Taupo circuit, scheduled for September 6th, has been bumped to the 27th. More Covid disruption!

The second round is a shared round with AMCC at Hampton Downs, Oct 18th, which is the Auckland round of our inter-club challenge. The points you score here will also count towards our Club Series overall points. AMCC are only going to run their rounds under Level 1, so this is by no means certain at this stage.

The final will be on the full International Taupo circuit on November 8th, which is the Hamilton round of the inter-club challenge with Auckland.

Upcoming road race events to look forward to:

Sept 20th AMCC Hampton Downs (Level 1 only)

Sept 27th HMCC Taupo (Saturday - Track Day/Sunday Race Day)

Oct 3/4 Classics/Posties Taupo

Interclub Challenge:

AMCC-HMCC

Something a bit different for the coming 2020-21 season is the Battle Of The Clubs.

An Interclub Challenge involving AMCC and HMCC – whereby a Round from each Club's respective Club Series will count towards the Battle Of The Clubs points.

Round 2 of the AMCC Series (at HD on 18 October) will be the first Round

And Round 2 of the HMCC Series (at Taupo on 8 November) will be the second and Final Round.

Points for the Battle Of The Clubs are independent of individual Club Series points.

However it is a great opportunity for a bit of interclub fun and engagement, and some more track time.

For more details, see the Entry Forms (on the AMCC Website), or email roadrace@amcc.org.nz and they will address any queries or questions.

BATTLE OF THE CLUBS (AMCC, HMCC)

There is no restriction of the grade of rider or capacity of machine unless for reasons of safety as deemed by the Race Secretary or CoC or failure to comply with Machine Specifications and event.

Supplementary Regulations. Riders within the Sidecar and Supermoto classes are excluded from the points.

Each club member that competes will still retain their club points. However, each club's member's points will also be added to the club's Battle of the Clubs tally. The tally will then determine the overall winner for the series.

For each rider that attends an "away meeting", their points will be doubled in the tally. At the end of each round, the tallies will be totalled and averaged based on the number of riders who have competed from each club.

This is only eligible for Auckland Motorcycle Club and Hamilton Motorcycle Club members, any competitors from other clubs may enter the Battle of the Clubs but purchasing a club membership from either club they wish to represent.

Failure to comply with the MoMs or supplementary regulations will result in the rider losing their points for that race.

This decision will be at the discretion of the race officials with at least one member from each club.

AMCC hosted Round will be held at Hampton Downs Motorsport Park during AMCC Club round 2 on 18 October 2020.

HMCC hosted Round will be held at Bruce McLaren Motorsport Park during HMCC Club final round on 8 November 2020 followed by prizegiving for the trophy will be done at the completion of the day.

Coromandel Overnighter

The morning of the annual Coromandel overnighter and its cold and raining. I toy with the idea of pyking out. But by the time my ride arrives (Kevin Hooper on his 1200 Bandit) I am hot in all my gear in the sun. An early arrival at Rototuna BP gives us time to gas up, grab a coffee and peruse fellow riders as they arrive. Ray, Steve P, Steve S, Terry. Mark Hatton's Bimota stirs a lot of interest and a small cluster assume hunched positions around it making appropriate noises.

Bruce and Michelle arrive, great to see them both, along with Liam, Michelle's son sporting a waterproof duffle bag which makes me nervous – does he know something I don't? They announce their intention to accompany the party only part of the way.

We rendezvous with Steve Walter at Mangateparu and a decision is made to travel via Tahuna and Netherton and ascend the peninsula via the east coast with a gas top up at Tairua. The field edges either side of the road around Turua are thick with daffodils yes I know you are bikers and don't give a shit but I am writing this so haha suck it up. The only wet roads we find are in the perpetual shade on the windies. Not much traffic either, not that traffic ever seemed to make a difference to the few who vanish over the horizon in short order.

We almost zip past the lunch stop at Hot Water Brewing Co and make a U-turn. The host there, eloquent enough to be an Aucklander, plies us with shot glasses of various flammable liquids and Kevin's eyes open wide and Ray coughs like a diesel train on start up. Brown paper wrapped bottles accompany us back to the table for a short wait for our food in the sunshine where we all fit around one table. A tray of only half consumed shot glasses of firewater are quickly commandeered after the neighbouring diners depart. Waste not want not.

A short verbal scuffle ensues in the carpark as we try and bully Bruce into continuing to Coromandel but no dice. Steve W says he is going to visit a new friend in the area but instead makes a new one, while we carry on to Kuaotunu to rest our bikes and backs.

Steve S and Ray embark on a spirited discussion on politics and the economy while Terry, Steve P, Kevin and Mark adopt horizontal positions on the grass in the sun and successfully fight off a nap. I was very tempted to do the same but the anticipated struggle to get upright again was too awful to contemplate. We wait in vain for Steve W.

The descent into Coromandel always a highlight of a bike ride on the peninsula and Kevin didn't disappoint, passing cars I could run faster than (and that is really saying something) and then cruising on neutral with minimal braking to the flat. He kept referring to my grabbing his waist as fear and I kept trying to explain that is my polite "giddy up" signal. I mean, it IS his ride and he is in charge but. . . .

When we arrive at Pat's Place there are a few vehicles already in the drive and a bit more activity than we usually encounter. Transpires our dear Pat has come out of a four year remission from cancer, her voice reduced to a whisper but still her old spark intact.

The group saunters down the main drag bee lining for the "bottom pub", looking pretty spic after a recent refurb, for the first drink of the evening. The second drink plus a plate of wedges in the window of the cosy Star and Garter where I spy our Auckland associates Bob and Brett approaching. I volunteer to go out and give them a wave from the footpath and a round of suggestions to "show them your tits" ensues. A subsequent trawl through the available bottle stores sees a collection of Macs Ale six packs in various colours plus a bottle of Fat Bird, awful but effective.

Dinner at the "Top Pub" was stopped in its tracks by a bar packed out with giants, all celebrating some famous local boy done good, international basketball star. Ducking into the neighbouring restaurant we are told they are catering for 250 guests and we are welcome to wait. Of course we leave and return to the Star and Garter. The Chiefs vs Hurricane game on the big screen with supporters getting more and more drunk and loud makes conversation difficult and a splinter group braves the cold outside but we stay in touch with rude gestures through the glass.

A rat scuttles frantically across the beams above Pat's porch, banging his head twice, a morning rainbow and a pair of quarrelling birds who thrash around our space oblivious to us humans in an arc make for a magical morning after a bitterly cold night. The boys look a little worse for wear, while I had a warm night in the house. Sleep was the usual scarce commodity for most.

Steve W's Joanne was introduced to the eels at the bottom of Pat's garden. The eels turned their noses up at our offer of twisties and weet- bix but allowed themselves to be gingerly petted. We heard a story where a recent Chinese guest delightedly caught and killed one intending to eat it and narrowly escaped becoming a victim themselves and rightly so.

The return trip was uneventful, with a stop at the mussel farm separating us from the group until Kopu where we had another chat to Bob and Brett. Kevin took the scenic route home, dog-legging across the Hauraki plains with a stop at Ngatea and the fashionable Glory Co café, bursting at the seams with a quilting expo on across the road, but our arrival at 11.55 timed to perfection.

So two sprinkles of light rain, almost all dry roads, light traffic, no slips (though one stretch of road one way and controlled by lights but it allowed us to filter to the front of the queue) and no mechanical problems. One of the best Coro trips on record and more the pity for those that missed it. It may well have been our last at Pat's Place.

CENTENARY UPDATE SEPTEMBER

Centenary Dinner.

The Covid and lockdown restrictions are still a major worry when it comes to this event. At our next Centenary committee meeting we will be discussing going ahead at Labour weekend, or postponing again(!!!) to next Easter, hoping things will be more back to normal then!

Let me know your input on this if you are not on the Centenary Committee, or come along to our next meeting on September 10th. The Show at the Classics Museum also hinges on this, and that would probably work better next Easter too.

So at this stage events start on October 24th, with the Opening of the Centenary Bike Show at the Classics Museum, but these are still subject to change.

We also have a Road Trial in the pipeline for the Saturday. The Dave Connolly Memorial Trophy will be on the line for this one (usually for the Anzac Trial, which was gobbled up by Covid this year).

The Centenary dinner will go ahead at the Hangar, Te Kowhai airfield on Saturday evening.

Sunday morning 25th, there will not be the Swap Meet originally planned, you'll have to wait for April 2021 for that.

But the commemorative Road Ride and photo recreations will happen on Sunday. Meet in Hood St from 9.00am (you won't be hungover, surely??). Bring out you vintage machinery, or your modern stuff, but come on a put on a good show. From there, there will be a vintage-friendly ride to the top of the Kaimai's, where our club was first mooted, the return to the clubrooms for BBQ, Beers and reminiscing.

Our show of artworks and bikes at the Waikato Art Museum will still happen, but has been rescheduled to Decemeber 2020 through Feb 2021.

The Book.

Is now available, can be picked up at the Clubrooms on clubnight. There are plenty of copies still available, bring $50 cash (no eftpos).

T Shirts

We will have some supplies at Club Night, you can collect your pre-ordered ones, and maybe buy one on the night if we have your size and colour in stock.

BBM Trials Report

Another aircooled trial at Kimihia lakes.

With a great turnout of 24 riders and a break in the weather, Sunday's trial was a success by any measure.

With 4 Sections on the banks by the stairs and 4 up the northern track the event was easy walking distance for partners and spectators.

Tight turns and a few judiciously placed logs made for some tricky off camber work amongst the trees. As the rain held off and the trees absorbed most of the weeks rain, there was a reasonable amount of grip available.

However any enthusiastic use of the throttle did produce the inevitable wheel-spin resulting in loss of forward motion. A requirement of aircooled trials is to "keep yer feet up" and non stop in the section.

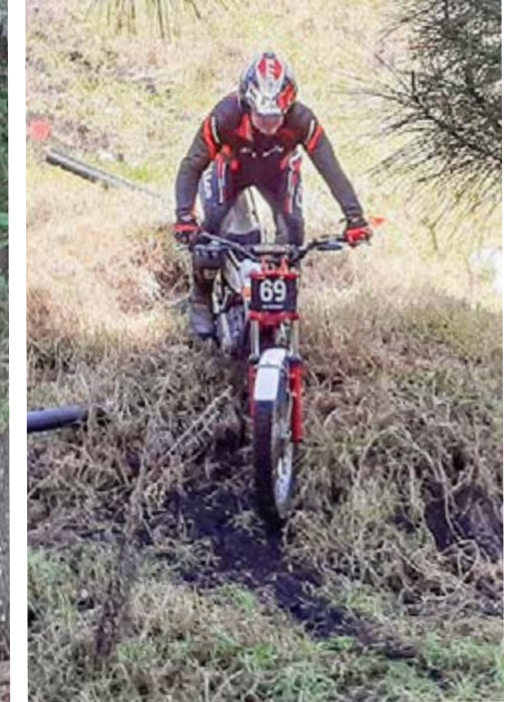

As always, it is the riders who challenges themselves, so anyone can get started at the "Social" level of this sport, then build up to the higher grades.

The next trial is on 6th September and is round 3 of the HMCC championship.

I am looking for anyone with an interest in kids trials. It is big in the Wellington region and would be a great way to get kids to learn two wheeled skills at an early age.

Cheers, Tony
